

The Government owes residents and businesses in Redbridge

£45m

We want our money back.

In March the government promised to repay any funds that councils used during the Coronavirus pandemic to keep communities safe. In Redbridge, this cost more than £60m.

The government have repaid just £15.7m, leaving a £45m black hole. We need your help to get it back.

Sign the petition today:

www.redbridge.gov.uk/ProtectRedbridge

#ProtectRedbridge #StickToYourPromises #RedbridgeOwed45m